Nobody is Safe.

It seems that no man's good name, and no corporation is safe from calumny. It now turns out that the auditing committee makes charges of irregularity in the management of the late State dispensary. A man that would make charges against such an institution as the State dispensary might go off and commit suicide. If we are to lose confidence in the late State dispensary, in whom could we put our trust? The first thing anybody knows somebody might assail the character of a blind tiger and disprove the purity of his goods.

Put up Your Rifle.

The city council has taken in hand the promiscuous shooting of parlor rifles on the streets by boys. This practice is not only annoying, it is very dangerous, and the council will put a stop to it immediately. The police have been notified and under a recent ordinance a fine of $5.00 will be imposed for every offense.

Good Singer.

Hon. W. P. Wideman was in town Monday. He sang in the A. R. P. choir Sunday. A finer singer is seldom heard off the stage.

Mr. Cecil Rosenberg Cromer, son of W. O. Cromer went to Saluda County to make an address before Miss Marie S. Cromer's school on Thanksgiving day. He reports the fields white with cotton in Saluda County. When he saw a Saluda beauty, he exclaimed, "here I give myself away."

Safe crackers are at work in some of the country towns, ruining safes, and getting a little cash sometimes. They will find this editor's safe unlocked. They needn't break it. We have been in it, ourself.

Mr. J. T. Bryant, farmer and merchant of Level Land, was in town Monday.

Our furniture business has been great, it will be greater. The people are learning that our store is the place to get the right kind of furniture at right prices. We are receiving large shipments almost every day and it goes out as fast as it comes in. S. J. Link.
